

50 Strong Years Of Enhancing People's Homes

When Girgenti Custom Window Treatments started out as a small door-to-door business in 1965 we did it with strong but simple values: to provide customers not only with the highest quality products but also the highest quality service. Now celebrating our 50th anniversary, it's these types of values that continue to push our family-owned business forward as a reliable company that homeowners, businesses and builders return to time and time again.

Exemplifying honesty and respect, the ability to attain excellence in our work is made feasible through the act of working closely with our clients to achieve their vision by enhancing the look of their homes and businesses, whether it be custom drapery, shadings or custom bedding.

Over the years we have adapted to the changing needs of our clients by including newly available technologies. We started with vertical blinds and wall-to-wall drapery and today there is a treatment to meet everyone's needs - including the impressive motorized technology available to operate your window treatments with smart phones and tablets. Today, we continue to dedicate the time it takes to become specialists in each area that we undertake.

Yet, without the customers who refer Girgenti to friends and family and return each time they desire an update to their homes and businesses, none of this would be possible. As we celebrate 50 strong years of enhancing people's homes and businesses - we want to thank our customers for placing trust and loyalty in us.
